SUBSTITUTE POLICY

Sometimes you need a substitute when you can't attend your meeting. It is best if you have a substitute stand in for you, perhaps a partner or customer or other business colleague.

WHO CAN BE YOUR SUBSTITUTE?

1. Anyone who is not a member of your chapter, and is not on the CC BLACKLIST.
2. Good Choices Are: Co-workers, Clients, Prospective New Members, Family, and Friends.

WHO CANNOT BE A SUBSTITUTE

1. A past member of Charity Chics who was terminated for ethics, or non-payment of dues.
2. Anyone who has a propensity to be disruptive, or objectionable to other members.

SUBSTITUTE GUIDELINES

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW:

1. Members must insure their substitute understands everything that will be expected from them. The substitute's responsibility is to represent the person and the profession of the Charity Chics member, and the substitute can mention their profession if there is no conflict with a Charity Chics member.
2. Members should know all professions represented in their chapter, and try to avoid a substitute that may be perceived as a competitor to another member of their chapter.
3. Substitutes should be prepared to give an infomercial presentation about the absent Charity Chics member.
4. Substitutes should show up to the meeting on time, and stay until the meeting is dismissed.

REMEMBER! Your substitute represents you. Prepare them as if your reputation depended on it. It does!

THINGS YOU SHOULD NOT DO:

1. Never abuse the privilege of being able to send a substitute.
2. Substitutes should not hand out their business cards or any literature if their profession is represented within the chapter.

As always... do unto other Chics as you would have done unto you.

I, _____ understand the terms of the Charity Chic's Sub-Policy and will abide to the best of my Chic ability.
